

CONCEPT: The importance of the evaluation process

Evaluation is the “systematic and objective assessment of an ongoing or completed project, programme or policy, its design, implementation and results.”

Development Assistance Committee of OECD

Evaluation is a key learning tool for the European Union to generate knowledge and produce evidence which we use to improve the way we engage with our partners and enhance the impact of our development co-operation.

European Commission: Evaluation matters - The evaluation policy for European Union development co-operation

MAIN OBJECTIVES

Definition of the Evaluation Plan

Base tool for the correct monitoring and evaluation of EU-JAMRAI objectives.

Development of Evaluation Tools

for monitoring the activities carried out in EU-JAMRAI. All tools were tested and validated before their Implementation.

Interim and Final Evaluation

Report of the level of compliance with EU-JAMRAI objectives. Monitor the implementation process of activities through established indicators.

To assess...

- ✓ the achievement of the project objectives
- ✓ whether the outcomes meet the needs of the target groups

Evaluation of GA Meetings:

Response rate: 50%.

The satisfaction of the participants was “good” in a scale from 1 (“poor”) to 5 (“excellent”).

Evaluation of Workshops:

5 workshops were evaluated

Response rate: 50%.

The satisfaction of the participants was “good” in a scale from 1 (“poor”) to 5 (“excellent”).

Report of the Teleconferences: brief information about number of participating partners and subject.

Periodic check of activities: monitoring every 6 months the correspondence between planned activities and achieved outputs and outcomes.

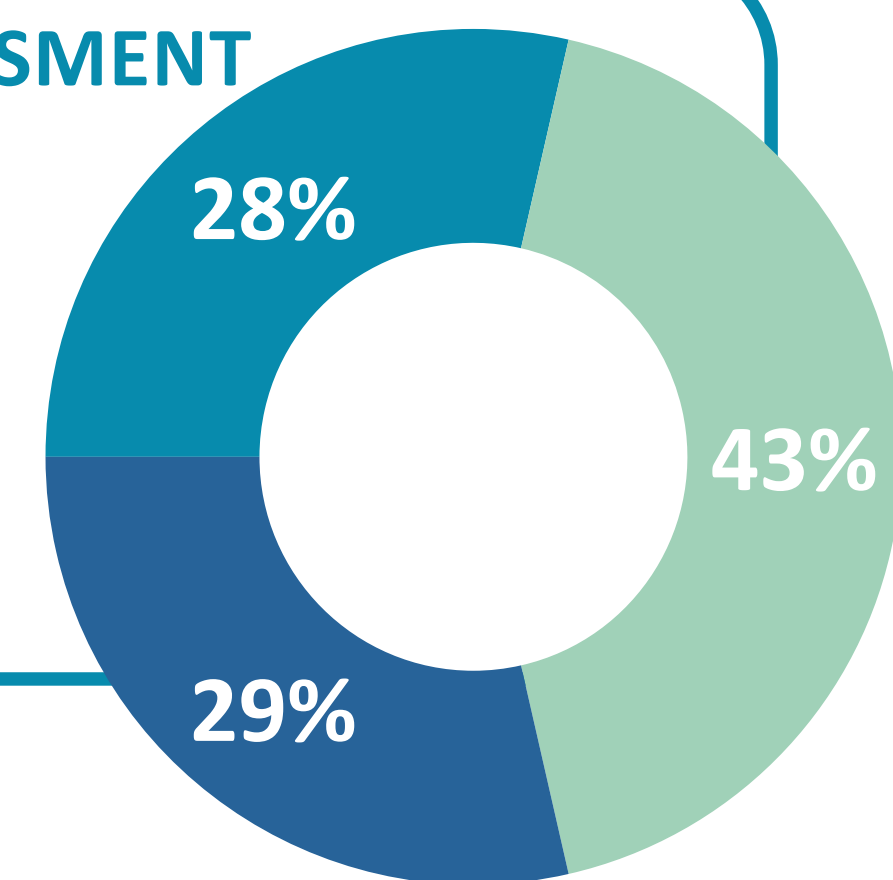

Assessing EU-JAMRAI most relevant deliverables, conducting internal and external evaluations.

Preliminary results:

- 6 deliverables evaluated by stakeholders
- 7 evaluations out of 12 planned

STAKEHOLDERS QUALITY ASSESSMENT

- Slightly dissatisfied
- Satisfied
- More than satisfied

For a complex project, with many partners involved as the EU JAMRAI, evaluation is the only way to ensure that the project delivers the expected results, because “People don’t do what you expect, but what you inspect.” - Louis V. Gerstner, Jr.
